Seven names are entered as those for whome extention no orders have been passed. Is not the Comptroller bound to have objected to the disbursement of their pay ? I do not see anything to that effect in the Regulations . But I remember that there are cases in which such objection has been raised. Is there any order orprecedent on the matter?

24/3/03

In the case of Mr. N. Narasimmiengar instructions were issued by the Comptroller in I90I to the Treasury not to disburse his p pay, but they were cancelled by himslf.Vide papers marked A & B

Mysore Dewan's office
April 1903

My dear Mr. Durnaya

Will you kindly let me have your opinion confidentially, for the information of Govt, as to whether messrs W. V. Dowy, Dy Excise Commr, and S. Venkataranganeigar Asstt: to the Excise Commr, who completed 55 years of age on the 18th May 1901, and 27th March 1902, respectively, are efficient for further Service?

Yours Sincerely.

Note.

Mr. S. Venkatrangaiengar, Assistant to the Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

Mr. Venkatrangaiengar was born in 1847 and is now therefore 56 years of age.

He entered service in 1867 and after serving in several ministerial appointments, rose to the position of Amildar. When Amildar of the Devanhalli Taluk in 1879, he was found fault with for having neglected the important duty of making out lists of ryots who had to be given remissions &ca, and having aggravated his offence by bringing false charges against the Deputy Commissioner Mr. Ricketts. He was on that occassion reduced from the 3rd to the 5th Grade of Amildars (vide Pro No. 1542 / G. 15 dated 15th May 1879).

Again in 1882, when in charge of the Chicknayakanhalli Taluk, he was relieved of his duties as he had shown personal enmity in the detection of a murder case and was suspected to have been instrumental in the failure of the prosecution. On this occassion he was transferred to another Taluk and was given ¼ of his pay as subsistence allowance for the period he was removed from duty.

In 1884, when Amildar of the Chittaldurg Taluk, charges of corruption, extortion, assault &ca were brought against him and he was suspended for one year with effect from 16th February 1884, and it was ordered that he be posted to a ministerial appointment after the expiry of the period of suspension.

Govt. Pro. No. 3310 ~~~~ dated 22nd 132 August 1884.

He then served for some time as a supernumerary in the Dewan's Office and was afterwards appointed Sheristadhar of the Excise Commissioner's Office. Since then, the record of his service has b en very good, successive Excise Commissioners (including Mr. Ricketts) having spoken well of his work and recommended him for promotion.

He rose gradually from Rs. 200 to Rs. 300, and his designation was changed from Sheristadhar into Assistant to the Excise Commissioner. On 14th April 1902, by order passed in council, his pay was raised to Rs. 350, and he was ordered to be graded with Extra Assistant Commissioners of the 3rd class.

The Hon'ble the Resident having enquired as to whether Mr. Venkatrangiengar had the necessary qualifications for the grade of Extra Assistant Commissioners, a report as to his qualifications was given to the satisfaction of the Residency. (Correspondence ending with letter No. 3791 dated 13th July 1902 from the First Assistant Resident.)

Mr.Venkatrangiengar having reached the age of 55 years last year, the question of his further retention came up before Council. The 2nd Councillor was of opinion that a year's extension might be sanctioned in the case of Mr. Venkatrangiengar. The 1st Councillor stated as follows:- " I don't wish to raise a discordant note, but shall content myself with recording that one of the circumstances under which the majority in Council sanctioned the promotion to Mr. Venkatrangiengar was ' that he was almost on the eve of his retirement'. If however the Councillor in charge of the portfolio thinks that this official may be given a year's extension, I shall not press the matter". The Dewan in the course of his observations was pleased to remark as follows:- " Mr. Venkatrangiengar's special knowledge and experience of the Excise Department is valuable, and his continuing for the present is a decided advantage to that department."

And on the 10th November 1902 H. H. the Maharaja was, after personal consultation with the Dewan, graciously pleased to order the retention of Mr. Venkatrangaiengar

Mr. Venkatrangiengar till the end of June 1903.

That period having now expired, orders have now to be passed regarding Mr. Venkatrangiengar's further retention in the service.

VI. SUBJECT ___ (CLAUSE a of SCHEDULE)

Services of Col. Grant, Mr. Rice, Mr. Cook and Mr. Venkatarangs Iyengar, Extra Assistant Commissioner attached to the Excise Commr!s Office, who have passed the age of 55year s.

OPINIONS OF THE ~~RAMARAO~~ DEWAN AND COUNCILLORS.

I. Col. Grant may be asked to stay on for one more year and retire on Ist July I904. He should be requested to train up Mr. D.Shama Rao so as to be able to take charge of the Department on that date, submitting in the meantime a report after six months.

His designation may be changed into "Survey and Settlement Commissioner in Mysore, the Constitution of the appointment remaining the same. His pay may also be raised by 200 Rs. a month fro. Ist July I903, the above arrangements being personal to him.

2. Mr. L.Rice, C.I.E., may be retired ~~from~~ from Ist. July I904, he in the meanwhile trying his best to complete what work he has on hand, and handing over what remains on that date to his Assistant.

3. Mr. Cook's service may be extended by 2 years ___ to the end of June I905.

4. Mr. Venkatarangaiengar may be retired.

(Int.) H.V.N.

Secretary.

SUBMITTED TO HIS HIGHNESS.

Most of the Super-annuated officers - are dealt out in H.H.'s orders dated 6-7-03 and the following four were reserved for further consideration.

I. Col. Grant is one of ~~them~~ those officers from whom the State has derived the greatest advantage. His services have been of the best and the most meritorious kind and there is no intention to deprive ~~him~~ the State of his still efficient and valuable ~~servic~~ services as long as they continue to be such. His Highness was pleased to observe in another context that it is unprecedented that an officer who settled a Taluk in the first instance should have been available to complete the revision Survey after the expiry of thirty years.... Such has however been the history of Davangere and Hiriyur Taluks and those others which will be completed before Col. Grant is compelled by old age and the attendent infirmities to ~~disconnect~~ disconnect himself with Mysore which has been the field of his life long work. Col. Grant feels his ~~own~~ energy quite unimpaired and it is doubtless to the advantage of the ~~State~~ State that his supervision over the Department should continue as long as it is possible to do so. Col. Grant thinks he can stay on for a couple of years and if his unimpaired health allows him to do so nothing better can be thought of ---- But we must be prepared for all contingencies and taking all the circumstances into consideration I think it is wise not to count upon long periods at once. It has been thought that the arrangements now made should be for one year certain and the Dewan, Councillors and myself have accordingly resolved to submit the ~~enclo~~ enclosed opinion as our opinion recommendation. Col Grant may be asked to stay on for one year and in the meantime to train up Mr. Rama Rao the present Deputy Superintendent so as to be able to succeed him and as promised by him to submit a report of further views and other arrangements six months hence or early in January 1904. Mr. Younns offer may then be considered and if possible it may be kept open till then.

But if Mr. Rama Rao who is quite eligible satisfies Col. Grant that he will make a good successor of his the last arrangement will be to appoint him as our Superintendent of Survey and Settlement. More need not be said on this point.

Col. Grant has during the long period of his connection with Mysore received but little advancement in his pay. I am not aware that since that since the rendition in 1881 he has received any increase at all. The late Dewan once intended to give him an increase but the intention was not carried out. It is in my opinion a graceful act on the part of His Highness to give him a couple of hundred Rs. more from the 1st. of July and in this opinion the councillors also concur. I humbly recommend this proposal for the gracious approval of His Highness Opportunity may be taken to change the designation of the officer to "Survey and Settlement Commissioner in Mysore". Col. Grant wishes it and deserves it also. The councillors have agreed. I should have recommended this some time ago but this seems to be a fitting opportunity and I am sure this recognition will be much appreciated by Col Grant and other Officers also.

The increase of pay has to be approved by the Govt. of India and the Resident has signified his approval of the measure and told me that he would support the recommendation to the Government of India.

3. The second officer to be dealt with is Mr. Rice who in his time has also done very good work. He is older than Col. Grant and had his work also in nearing completion. That little remains will be be taken up by his Assistant Mr. Parasirthachar who is an M.A. of the Madras University. and is doing useful work in an intelligent manner. The Councillors and Myself have agreed that Mr. Rice should retire on the 1st. July next and this recommendation may be approved. In the present case condition of our finance the saving of 1000 Rs. a month is by no means an undesireable measure.

5. Mr Cook comes next.... and he wants his services to be extended by by five years. we have decided to recommend recommend two years years and if Mr. Cook will, after the expiry of this period, be four found to retain his strength and energy there will be nothing to prevent his case being then favourably considered.

4. Mr. Venkatachangaiengar Excise Assistant Commissioner comes last His case is not unknown to His Highness ___ He is reported to be still doing his work energetically and well , but having regard to his past the councillors and myself have resolved to recommend his retirement at once. This course may be sanctioned.

SI-7-08. (Intd.) P.N.K.

Orders are issued about all the officers except Col. Grant. A draft and a D.O. letter about him and also a letter to the Residency about the increase of his pay are submitted for approval.
